Carried

5.7 New Central Library Update

A discussion ensued regarding an informal budget conversation in relation to the New Central Library, had between D. Atkins, D. Williamson and Mayor Guthrie. D. Williamson explained it was a productive, positive interaction which highlighted reasons for budget increase such as inflation, deferred hiring and city custodial framework. The Board was informed that the City Council budget meeting has been delayed until February 4th, 2026.

A discussion ensued regarding timing of when the New Central Library will be ready for operation. Pending budget and lease details, late 2026 is the current projected date for obtaining the new location.

6 Presentations & Reports

6.1 Delayed Opening for Emergency Preparedness Training

C. Elston-Ryder presented a proposal to delay the opening of each library facility for the purpose of staff training for emergency scenarios such as fire drills, hold and secure, first aid and more, while limiting disruptions to patrons and ensuring safe execution.
